Stamer Named Fellow In American College of Employee Benefits Counsel

Dallas/Fort Worth-based employee benefits attorney Cynthia Marcotte Stamer has been selected to become a Fellow in the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, Inc. at the 2011 Annual Meeting and Dinner on November 4, 2011.

With her selection as a Fellow, Ms. Stamer becomes one of a select group of employee benefits attorneys recognized by the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, Inc. for having demonstrated their leadership, character, ability and professional responsibility in the course of dedicating their careers to the field of employee benefits.

A board certified labor and employment attorney Ms. Stamer continuously for more than 24 years has advised and represented employee benefit plans, their sponsoring employers, fiduciaries, insurers, administrators and others to monitor and respond to evolving legal and operational requirements and to design, administer, document and defend medical and other welfare benefit, qualified and non-qualified deferred compensation and retirement, severance and other employee benefit, compensation, and human resources programs and practices. She works extensively with plan sponsors, insurers, administrators, technology and other service providers and others to develop and operate legally defensible programs, practices and policies that promote the client's human resources, employee benefits or other management goals. Her work includes both advising and represent clients on technical legal and risk management, as well as practical aspects of the design and operation of risk management and compliance processes, services and products, technology and other tools.

Ms. Stamer is recognized, internationally, nationally and locally for her leadership, work, advocacy, education and publications on employee benefit, employment, insurance and financial services and health care matters. A primary drafter of the Bolivian pension privatization law and the founder and executive director of Project COPE, the Coalition on Patient Empowerment, Ms. Stamer also represents business and government clients on employee benefit and other workforce, health care, insurance, education and related public policy matters. Her experience includes more than 25 years work on U.S federal and state health care, pension, insurance, immigration and related legislative and regulatory reforms, as well as a wide range of international involvement.

In addition to her extensive legal and consulting experience, Ms. Stamer also is a widely published author and highly regarded speaker, who provides leadership for many employee benefits, human resources and other management focused organizations. Among other things, she is a council member of the ABA Joint Committee on Employee Benefits, the Vice-Chair of the American Bar Association (ABA) TIPS Employee Benefits, the immediate Past-Chair and current Welfare Benefits Committee Co-Chair of the ABA RPTE Employee Benefits & Other Compensation Group, past Chair of the ABA Health Law Section Managed Care & Insurance

Interest Group, Coordinator of the EO Division of the Gulf States Area TEGE Council, a former Executive Committee and Board Member and Dallas Chapter President of the Texas Association of Business, a former National Board Member and Dallas Chapter President of the WEB Network of Benefit Professionals, former Board Member and CLE Chair of the Southwest Benefits Association, a former Regional Chair of SHRM and member of its National Consultants Board, and a Founding Board Member and past-President and Patient Empowerment Chair for the Alliance for Health Care Excellence.
