

Latest in Health Care

HHS Hiring to Expand its Health Information Privacy Enforcement Team

July 20, 2009

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) this week announced job openings on its Office For Civil Rights (OCR) Health Information Privacy Enforcement Team.

The openings are for Health Information Privacy Specialist positions in OCR's Division of Health Information Privacy, which enforces the Privacy Rule of the Health Information Portability & Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the confidentiality provisions of the Patient Safety and Quality Improvement Act.

The open period for these positions is Monday, July 13, 2009 to Friday, July 24, 2009.

For more information on these available positions, click here and enter the corresponding job announcement number.

For More Information

We hope that this information is useful to you. If you need assistance with EMR or other health care technology, privacy or other health care compliance, risk management, transaction or operation concerns, please contact Curran Tomko Tarski LLP Health Practice Group Chair, Cynthia Marcotte Stamer, at (214) 270-2402, cstamer@cttlegal.com or your other favorite Curran Tomko Tarski LLP Partner.

You can review other recent health care and internal controls resources and additional information about the health industry and other experience of Ms. Stamer here. If you or someone else you know would like to receive future updates about developments on these and other concerns, please be sure that we have your current contact information – including your preferred e-mail – by creating or updating your profile at here or e-mailing this information to cstamer@cttlegal.com.